POULTRY BLACK MARKET.

WASHINGTON. — The black market in eggs and poultry is so bad that the War Food administration is seriously considering the freezing of all eggs in storage. Meanwhile J. Edgar Hoover's G-men have been quietly probing the poultry black market in the Delaware-Maryland area with startling results. Their findings will reach high into Delaware state politics and perhaps into the Washington headquarters of the War Food administration and OPA.

Already Clifford Shedd, Delaware WFA official, has lost the authority to release poultry for civilian consumption from the army's set-aside, but his chief in Washington, Gordon Sprague, says he is taking full authority for anything that might be found wrong with Shedd's administration. Sprague has taken over direct charge of all poultry releases, but claims that he knows of no irregular action by Shedd.

Meanwhile, black market operations along both the West and the East coast are so serious that legitimate poultry and egg dealers are being forced out of business. The situation in New England, New Jersey and North Carolina is especially bad.

Tim Stitts of the War Food administration told Congressman Anderson's food committee that OPA should suspend all price ceiling on eggs in an effort to channel eggs back into the legitimate market. This immediately caused dealers to hold on to their eggs for a price rise.

But what they did not know is that Stitts has not requested OPA to suspend or even raise the price ceiling on eggs. OPA, under the price control act, cannot raise these ceilings without formal request from the War Food administration, and this request has never been made.

Finally, the WFA may be forced to freeze all eggs in storage, permitting the army to take what it wants of them and release the rest for civilian market. Hundreds of thousands of cases of eggs are in private storage this year while their owners play for an eventual price rise. The black market on those eggs which do not go into storage is so bad that while creameries in Minnesota cannot get eggs, eggs from Minnesota farms are going via illegal channels as far as New York City.

U. S. PRESTIGE ABROAD
Hardboiled Republican Congressman Everett Dirksen of Illinois had a secret meeting with his GOP colleagues in a house lobby the other day following his 30,000-mile trip around the world. He gave them plenty of food for thought. Among other things, Dirksen said:

"Here's something you fellows may not agree with, but I want to tell you that the OWI (Office of War Information) is doing a great job for us abroad.

"I went into Turkey where 83 per cent of the pictures in the Turkish newspapers and 40 per cent of the lineage is supplied them by the OWI. In other words, they are telling the Turks what this country is like—selling the United States to Turkey.

"They're doing a great job and if it wasn't for OWI, American prestige wouldn't be half as high as it is today.

In India, for instance, I met with a group of political leaders who began asking me about the Tennessee Valley Authority. I was surprised that they would know anything about it, and asked them how it happened; they replied that they had seen an OWI film showing TVA.

"I came to the conclusion," Dirksen said, "that OWI is something we've got to keep after the war."

RUSSIAN RELATIONSHIPS

Unless something unforeseen happens to upset it, Harry Hopkins has won a resounding victory for improved relations with Russia by ironing out the main points of the Polish dispute.

The agreement, hammered out in several intimate talks between Hopkins and Stalin, provided for an immediate meeting by three groups of Polish leaders in Moscow to set up a new Polish government representing all factions. This will include ex-Premier Mikolajczyk of the London government, who has been kept closely informed of all phases of the Kremlin discussions and has approved them.

CAPITAL TALK

Chicago's Mayor Ed Kelly still runs the most impressive service-men's center in the world, has taken care of more than 15,000,000 G.I. visitors and served them more than 3,000,000 meals.

The state and interior departments both have their eyes on the Philippines. State's budget carries a salary allowance for a U. S. ambassador to the Philippines. Interior's budget carries a salary for a high commissioner. If there is independence, there will be an ambassador; if not, a commissioner.

Geraldine Lloyd Becomes Bride of Robert B. Hicks

Before a natural background of evergreens, hydrangeas and pelargoniums, in the beautiful garden at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Ninde Lloyd on Hamilton avenue, Miss Geraldine Lloyd became the bride of Robert B. Hicks Saturday afternoon, June 30, at a 12:30 o'clock ceremony.

The Rev. William H. Lloyd, grandfather of the bride, officiated at the nuptial rites and Mr. Lloyd gave his daughter's hand in marriage.

Miss Lloyd's gown was fashioned of marquisette with sheer lace at the neck, shoulders and waist, with a bouffant skirt and short train. Her veil of tulle fell from a coronet of tulle and lilies of the valley. Her bridal bouquet was butterfly orchids and stephanotis.

Miss Georgine Lloyd was her sister's maid of honor, and her bridesmaids, Miss Joan Kennedy and Miss Phyllis Kenyon, were gowned alike in pink marquisette and wore large, crownless hats and carried clusters of pink tuberous begonias tied with pale green ribbon.

Vincent Klevesahl was best man in the absence of Lt. Lee Hicks who was unable to be present for his brother's wedding. The ushers were Robert Roberts and James Bailey, pilots for Pan American Airways as is the bridegroom.

The bride's mother wore a gray and white flowered print, with white hat and bouvardia corsage, and the groom's mother wore a blue and white flowered print, with white hat and white gardenias.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served from a buffet table placed near the swimming pool. A wedding cake, encircled by white bouvardia and gardenias formed the center piece.

Wage Ceiling Set For 'Cot Workers

Recent amendments of the War Food Administration's specific wage ceiling order for picking and cutting apricots make 85 cents the maximum hourly rate in Santa Clara county and also re-define areas in regard to piece rate maximums, growers and workers were reminded today by John E. Cooter, executive officer of the California Wage Board.

The practical effect of the amendments, Cooter explained, is to replace the differentials on hourly rates provided last year for three areas with the uniform hourly 85-cent rate, and to define two piece rate area differentials instead of the three in effect last year.

Maximum piece rates permitted under the revised order are $13 a ton for picking and $16 a ton for cutting apricots in Santa Clara county.

Mrs. Gordon Ainsley, Mrs. Frank Schemmel and Mrs. Charles Polhemus assisted in serving at the table.

The young couple left for the south where they will fly to Mexico City and Acapulco for a month's honeymoon before establishing themselves in the future home in Miami, Florida.

For the trip the bride wore a tailored suit of natural gabardine, a hat of matching shade and an heirloom ornament of coral on the jacket of her suit.

The bride is a graduate of Castilleja School and of Stanford University. She is the granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Colpitts Ainsley. The benedict was graduated from Visalia Junior college and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Hicks, who attended the wedding.

Among the out-of-town guests present were Mrs. C. E. West and Mrs. Alvin Marchuki, Hollister, Mr and Mrs. Warren Shelley, Ben Lomond,

Magazine Racket Worker Here

The following item appeared in the June 29 issue of the Santa Clara Journal:

Victimized by a handsome salesman in the old magazine racket, several local housewives have been informed that the solicitor to whom they paid money for magazines that never arrived has been apprehended. One local woman paid him $15 for eight magazine subscriptions and a beauty salon operator was bilked of $7 for another.

Don't let unknown solicitors take your orders for magazines. Place them through a local agent serving Campbell for many years.

CHINA'S EIGHT YEARS OF WAR

On July 7, 1937—more than two years before Hitler invaded Poland and 4½ years prior to the attack on Pearl Harbor—China began the heroic and historic struggle forced upon her by Japanese aggression.

Now, after eight years of ceaseless fighting, the battle is still going on. By all odds the Chinese should have collapsed long ago. But today they are fighting back more strongly and effectively than ever.

From present indications a long hard road lies yet ahead. Even if American forces invade the Japanese homeland there is the possibility that the powerful Nip armies in China will continue to fight. The situation in China, however, has brightened tremendously during the past year.

The overland route to Chungking's "back door" has been reopened. Supplies are now coming through in greatly increased quantities. American pressure in the Pacific is apparently forcing Tokyo to withdraw troops northward in China, thus opening areas on the "invasion coast" for possible landings by our armies.

Eight years ago, and for nearly five years thereafter, Chiang Kai Shek and his country stood alone against the Jap war machine that had largely been built up and was being sustained by American oil and scrap iron. Today the greatest sea armada of all time, together with powerful air and land forces, are giving the Chinese long-deserved assistance. By the end of this year, if the Nips have not thrown in the sponge, they will be faced by military might even more overwhelming than at present.

So, for the first time in eight long years, the light of hope is dawning across China's night of blackness and chaos.

The devotion of the Chinese to the cause of liberty and their determination to preserve it against all odds will long stand as an inspiration to freedom-loving peoples the world over.

WHY THE SECRECY?

The report of Supreme Court Justice Robert H. Jackson on the program made toward bringing war criminals to trial is encouraging. Especially reassuring is the statement that the United States will act "alone if necessary" to investigate war criminals.

It is to be noted, however, that the Allied War Crimes Commission has refused to make public the list of those indicted.

It seems to us that the common people whose sons and brothers do the actual fighting are entitled to know who is, or is not, on the list. Too much secrecy often results in too little justice.

THIS ISN'T SOCIALISM

Lincoln, addressing a deputation of working men, stated, "The strongest bond of human sympathy outside the family relation should be one uniting all working people of all nations and tongues and kindreds, nor should this lead to a war upon property or the owners of property. Property is the fruit of labor, property is desirable; is a positive good in the world. That some should be rich shows that others may become rich and hence is just encouragement to industry and enterprise. Let not him who is homeless pull down the house of others, but let him work diligently and build one for himself, thus by example assuming that his own shall be safe from violence when built."

ARE WE LETTING DOWN?

The wave of strikes which made 100,000 or more workers idle will not make pleasant news for our fighting men in the Pacific. Nor does it help the morale of the troops returning to America on their way to the Asiatic front.

Their resentment toward labor union rivalry and bickering between workers and employers which have hindered some of our most vital war production is easy to understand. They feel that since they are risking their lives the least that striking home front workers could do is to get back on the job and stay there regardless of their comparatively petty complaints about wages or working conditions.

It is only fair, of course, to point out that the number of man hours lost by strikes equals but a fraction of the total working time being put in throughout the nation as a whole. But the fact remains that our fighting men feel—and rightly so—that they are entitled to the full support of both labor and management.

The sudden increase in labor disputes seems to indicate that too many persons believe that the war is just about over and that now is the time to begin jockeying for advantage in one respect or another.

Such tactics are not likely to cause us to lose the war, but they could easily help to prolong it and add to the toll of our dead and wounded.

We know that the men at the front will not let us down. They have the right to expect the same treatment from us.

SENATE FILIBUSTER

In the United States we uphold the right of free speech. But sometimes it can prove not only highly annoying but downright obstructive to democratic processes.

A few days ago the one-man filibuster in the Senate of Senator Theodore G. Bilbo, the agitator-ranter from Mississippi, gave us a good (or should we say "bad") illustration of this. Mr. Bilbo, who calls himself "The Man," but is referred to in less complimentary terms by most other persons, undertook his one-man gab-fest as a means of blocking any action on the Fair Employment Practices Commission which he fears will give the Negroes of the south a square deal. During his extended harangue he read aloud letters from friends, editorials and various other time-consuming items. Not since the early 1930's has there been such an exhibition of one-man determination to block the whole Senate in its actions. On the last occasion Huey Long, another southern demagogue whom Mr. Bilbo apparently seeks to emulate, babbled for days in order to block action on the anti-lynching bill.

SHIP REPAIRS

Navy Secretary James Forrestal has made it clear that the ship repair situation on the Pacific Coast has become extremely serious.

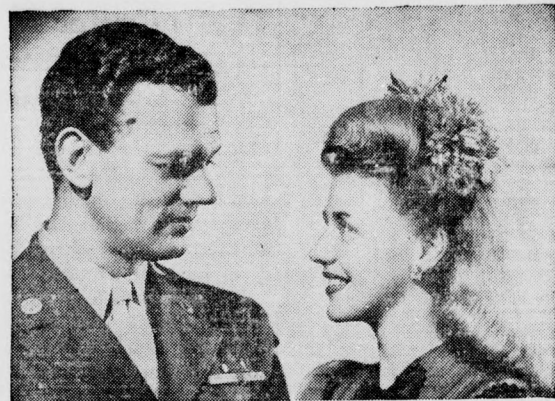

The fact that the shipyard labor shortage out here made it necessary for the wounded aircraft carrier Franklin to travel all the way to Brooklyn for repairs gives a clear picture of the gravity of the problem.

Victory in Europe has caused many shipyard workers to leave their jobs and seek employment in peacetime industries. The result is that just at the time when the West Coast is entering the most crucial period of the war it is losing desperately needed manpower.

The Navy urges men to stick to their work, or if their job is completed at one place, to accept other war work in that area. Even if, for some reason, a man cannot work in a shipyard, there are many other essential industries in need of men.

The main thing is for workers to stay on the job. This is not the time to "call it quits;" rather, it is the time to work harder than ever.

Rev. Carlson to Occupy Pulpit at Cong'l Church

Members of the Congregational church met Sunday, July 1, following the morning service and voted to issue a call to the Rev. Robert Carlson who occupied the pulpit on June 24.

Rev. E. E. Pleasant will probably supply during July except for Sunday, July 22, and Rev. Carlson had said he would be available for the first Sunday in August.

Sunday morning an old but still new sound was heard in Campbell when the Congregational church bell was rung after a silence of years.

The bell was broken long ago but had been mended and was used Sunday morning.

M. C. Ralston, vocational agriculture instructor at the Campbell Union high school the past two years but who will teach in San Jose next year, returned to Campbell this week after attending the summer session for agricultural teachers at the California Polytechnic college in San Luis Obispo.

Mrs. G. A. Dahms returned from Oakland Saturday after a two weeks visit with her daughter Mrs. Elsie Meredith. Mrs. Robert Tidd, grand daughter-in-law and her daughter from Yakima, Wash. stayed with Mr. Dahms while she was away.

Jerry Locke, son-in-law of Mrs. Laura Keesling has purchased the Congregational Manse on North Central avenue and is converting it into apartments. Otis Hyde is doing the alteration work.

Jensen succeeded himself as adjutant and assumed the duties of finance officer as well; Gus Robillard was given the station of Sergeant at Arms; Dave Ribble again accepted the post of Chaplain and Ray Wood will continue his duties as historian.

Outgoing officers were called upon for brief outlines of their activities and the outstanding report was that of historian Ray Wood, who gave an excellent account of the post's first year. This all-inclusive written report was well received and drew high praise from visiting and local members alike.

"Larry" Cassaletto of Los Gatos, instrumental in establishing this post, gave a short talk, thanking the members for their fine response to his requests in getting started. Howard Smith, the real "daddy" of the post, told of his inspiration to see such an organization locally, and of the splendid support given him by Dan Clark in rounding up sufficient ex-service men to form the nucleus of a post.

From scratch in May of last year, with 47 names on the charter membership roll, the post has grown to over a hundred members and outranks some much older posts in this area. Ray Wood's outline of activities included the above information, the formation of a healthy auxiliary post, the "carrying on" by taking over the responsibilities of staging Old Settlers' Day program, the erection of the highly impressive Honor Roll on the high school grounds, Americanization educational programs at the local, Cambrian and Moreland grade schools, Boys' State sponsorship and Boy Scout work.

An increasing number of World War II men are taking on the responsibilities of legiondom as they sign up shortly after their discharge from the armed forces. Roy Prestigiaco and Ernest Pierce, both recently released, filed applications for membership last week.

At the completion of the ceremonies, the auxiliary ladies joined their menfolks for home-made cake and coffee.

"Carmen Jones" Will Have Two Performances

An unprecedentedly heavy advance sale has greeted the announcement that Billy Rose's "Carmen Jones," with the original New York production will have two performances in San Jose, a matinee and evening on July 29, coming direct from the Curran Theatre, by arrangement with the San Francisco Light Opera association.

The New York Times declared "Carmen Jones" to be "wonderful, quite wonderful" while the celebrated critic George Jean Nathan summed it all up by saying, "It can't be beaten."

Muriel Smith, Inez Matthews, Napoleon Reed, Lavern Hutcherson, Elton Warren, the famous Buck and Bubbles and a company of over one hundred with augmented orchestra make "Carmen Jones" the most exciting entertainment to be seen on the current stage.

Tickets for matinee and evening may be secured from the Denny-Watrous box office, San Jose auditorium.

Changes In Church Pastors

The Rev. Joyce Farr who has been pastor of the Laurel Avenue church in Oakland has been transferred to the First Methodist church in San Jose.

Rev. Farr is the son-in-law of the John Lynden's and has visited Campbell many times.

Other changes in the county of interest to Campbell, made at the recent conference of Methodist churches, is the appointment of Rev. Edwin Bowling to the Gilroy church, from his pastorate at Greenfield, and the Rev. John F. Wilson from Santa Cruz to Morgan Hill. Rev. Wilson served the Campbell church quite some time ago.

Charlie DeSelle, Raymond DeSelle, Stanley DeSelle and John Pollard left Friday evening for a week's stay at Tuolumne Meadows for trout fishing and relaxing.

The extensive addition to the Drew cannery which has been under construction for several weeks has been completed and ready for use with the opening of the apricot canning season this week.

The new building will house more machines for preparation and cooking departments; a parking lot of 4½ acres located at the rear of the plant has been purchased.

The company anticipates that more than 1200 employees will be needed in the height of the season, according to William C. Henley, personnel director.

Bus services will be provided for employees and a nursery maintained. Prospective employees are urged to register at the earliest date possible between 7 a. m. and 6 p. m.

ONE DIME

ELECTRICITY

819,000 HOME USERS PAY LESS THAN
10c A DAY FOR ELECTRIC SERVICE

A dime...ten cents...won't buy much when you come to think of it. A cup of coffee? A piece of pie? A dime is pretty small money today! But your dime, the baby brother of a dollar, still gives man-size value when it buys ELECTRICITY. That is because electricity is still CHEAP today...47 per cent cheaper than in 1914 while other principal living costs have risen more than 77 per cent.

A DIME'S WORTH OF ELECTRICITY WILL

- TOAST 84 slices of bread.
- BREW coffee a-plenty at mealtimes...324 cups.
- SWEEP with a vacuum cleaner some 80 room-size rugs.
- WASH with a modern machine about 35 tubs-full of clothes.
- LIGHT a 100-watt lamp for 33 hours.
- RUN electric clock for accurate time 42 days.
- OPERATE your radio for a total of 33 hours.
- DO shirt-saving ironing 14 shirts.
